Indigenous Australian Languages Exhibition (mostly as recorded by our Lutheran Missionaries).

At level 1 of the (excellently signposted) Barr Smith Library at the University of Adelaide.

Throughout July, Clara Stockigt, has prepared an exhibition on the documentation of Kaurna/Adelaide (Teichelmann and Schurmann, the 1st Lutheran Pastors in SA), Ngarrindjeri/Encounter Bay, (Meyer), Parnkalla/Pt Lincoln, Dieri/Lake Killalpaninna and Aranda languages. These illustrate an unsurpassed, dedicated intellectual collaboration between Indigenous Australians and Europeans starting 175 years ago.

150 years ago, next March, the two synods resolved to initiate our own Mission.

'The peculiar nature of the language spoken': relics of South Australian languages.

This exhibition brings together, for the first time, materials detailing the early documentation of South Australia's Aboriginal languages. The alliance required between Indigenous Australians and the European linguists to produce the early manuscripts now on display tells of a dedicated intellectual collaboration which is unsurpassed in other colonial encounters. These materials often stand as sole relics of languages which have now disappeared, without which our understanding of the state's rich Indigenous language heritage would be immensely poorer.

The idea for the exhibition was originally conceived by Lois Zweck, of the Lutheran Archives. With the exhibition timed to coincide with the third conference of the Society for the History of Linguistics in the Pacific (July 5-6, Barr Smith Library), Lois saw the opportunity to present the Archives' rarely viewed and precious materials to a specialist academic audience, at the same time making them available for viewing by those in the broader community with an interest in the state's cultural and linguistic history. In addition to resources from the Lutheran Archives and the Barr Smith Library Rare Books & Special Collections, materials have also been kindly supplied by the South Australian Museum, The Royal Geographic Society of South Australia and the State Library of South Australia. For the first time this array of materials has been brought together under the one roof. The collection tells of compelling close cultural engagement.

The exhibition has been curated by Clara Stockigt, a Ph.D. candidate in Linguistics at the University of Adelaide. It is to be held in the display area outside the Barr Smith Library Rare Books & Special Collections from June 24 until the end of July 2012.

Association Snippets Junior School Term 2 Excursions

The Unity College Junior School students have been out and about in Term 2, with many excursions taking place relating to their lessons in Integrated Studies.

The Year 2s visit Old Tailem Town, learning about life at the turn of the 20th century.

Year 1 students journeyed around Murray Bridge, visiting Holy Cross Lutheran Church, the Christian Family Centre, walking over the bridge and lunching at Sturt Reserve.

Finally our Reception students made their annual pilgrimage to the Hahndorf Farm Barn where they patted, petted and milked a variety of farm animals and scaly reptiles.

Music Cabaret Evening

The Unity College Music Department presented their Music Cabaret 2012 on Friday 1 June.

The Murray Bridge Town Hall was brimming with family, friends and music lovers who enjoyed a variety of performances from the Unity Concert Band, UC Big Band, Little Big Band, Year 9 Band and various guest solo artists. A highlight of the night was the performances of the UC Big Band and the Little Big Band as they performed the repertoire they played at the recent Generations in Jazz Festival in Mount Gambier.

Business in the Real World

The Unity College Year 12 Business and Enterprise class recently put into practice the theoretical knowledge learnt in class by operating their own business.

The Business and Enterprise course provides students with the opportunity to have a practical element to their studies and the students chose to open and run a Café.

The 'Here and There Café' sold barista made coffees and home-made muffins to Senior School students and staff, operating on three separate days. Each student was allocated a specific role including operations, marketing and finance.

There was much positive feedback for the students from their customers and they showed composure under pressure – including the influx of cold and hungry students and staff on one of the coldest May days in recent memory!

Schools want more Chaplaincy – New funding model needed

This week the High Court of Australia delivered their long-awaited judgement regarding school Chaplaincy. The great news is that chaplains are still welcomed in Australian schools even though the historical funding model will need to be revised.

All seven of the High Court judges unanimously held that chaplaincy does NOT involve any breach of the church –state separation. This means that chaplaincy funded under a new model will be constitutionally valid.

The Court left open the option for the Government to continue funding either under new legislation or a grant of funds to the states and territories. As a result, Schools Ministry Group is working urgently and diligently to see a solution to ensure funding for school chaplains is secure.

“Attorney-General Nicola Roxon says the Government has been doing “contingency planning” in the lead-up to today’s ruling, and is confident it will find a way to keep chaplains in schools.

“We are committed to both the program and the funding for the school chaplaincy program...and there are different ways that we will be able to provide for the program and the funding to continue,” Ms Roxon said.

The program has bipartisan support and Tony Abbott has also spoken out in support of the program. “We invented the program, we support the program, we want it to continue.”

Schools Ministry Group will be working with the Federal Government to see that a new funding model is developed as quickly as possible.

SMG has been coordinating the Chaplaincy Program (Christian Pastoral Support Program) in SA government schools for over 20 years. The role is highly valued by our school communities and they want it to continue, in fact they want more of it. This has been evidenced by the overwhelming support for the extension and expansion of the National School Chaplaincy and Student Welfare Program (NSCSWP): 97% of SA schools have chosen to continue with the Chaplaincy program in the extension of the program, and 47 of the 58 government schools in the expansion of the NSCSWP have also chosen Chaplaincy.

SMG in partnership with local Christian communities provide over 320 schools with a CPS Worker. SMG is the only Chaplaincy service provider in SA and is contracted by the Department of Education and Child Development to oversee the program. SMG is the second largest Chaplaincy provider in Australia with more than 60 % of government schools opting for the program.

Schools Ministry Group is committed to supporting our school communities.

Sharing

Share your highs and lows for the week.

Reading:

Judges 6

Read through using three symbols: Discuss
? = question.

☼ = sun for when the light comes on.

→ = arrow where Jesus is hitting the mark
in your heart calling you to action.

Talking it Over

When we read that Israel did evil, what was it? Are we in danger of do this?

Israel hit rock bottom and cried out to the LORD for help. Why do people wait till they hit rock bottom? Discuss

The angel greets Gideon; 'The LORD is with you, mighty warrior'. Reflect on this greeting especially in regard to how Gideon saw himself. What is this saying to you?

Why did Gideon feel abandoned by the LORD, v13? What makes you feel abandoned? What does this story tell us about such feelings?

Gideon felt weak, too weak to do what was asked? Where was Gideon looking? How might we feel the same way at times?

What was Gideon instructed to do v25ff? What was Gideon's feeling? Why might it have been dangerous? What in your life might Jesus be calling you to tear down?

Why did Gideon's father have an Asherah pole? What are we tempted to rely on?

Praying

Thank Jesus for rescuing you from slavery to sin, death and the devil. Thank Jesus for sending the Holy Spirit to walk with you in this wilderness as we head for his promised land. Pray for each other's needs.

Verse for the Week

"The LORD answered, 'I will be with you...'" Judges 6:16

Character Conversation Questions

How does Jesus give you confidence?

How do you use Jesus' power?

When do you take time to listen, be open?

How do you honour your parents and those God has placed in authority?

Who have you encouraged this week?

Who determines your sexual responses?

How have you helped people keep their property and resources?

Where have you been tempted to speak poorly of another person?

Have you given thanks to God for what you have or wished you had what others have?

What causes you fear?

Did I finish my reading and hear from God? What am I going to do?

Have I been honest with myself?
