Jesus is here
to serve you!

WELCOME

Dear visitor, It is great that you are worshipping with us today, and we pray that it will be uplifting to you and I am sure we will all be blessed by your being here.

Once a fortnight at our services we celebrate "Holy Communion", or as some people call it "The Lord's Supper". Jesus had this special time with his disciples just before he suffered and died for all who believe in him. At this time, as he blessed the bread and the wine he said "This is my body given for you. He also said "This is my blood shed for you for the forgiveness of your sins" No one can understand how this happens. Jesus said it, and we believe Him. That is what faith is about.

If you can accept what he said about him being here in a special way, then we would love to have you join us at this wonderful meal.

If you are not sure but would still like to come up for a blessing with everyone else, please do. So, the helpers are not confused, please stand with your hands folded across your chest. Thank you for being understanding.

If you would like to talk about this wonderful act of God's love, please feel free to see the Pastor or one of our leaders.

Pastoral Care Slips - You will find these slips on the ends of the pews. We would like you to fill in any details/comments and place in the offering bag or give to an usher or the pastor as you leave the church.

RAISING MONEY TO SUPPORT MINISTRY IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Combined Lutheran Churches News

Scams aim to take your money— watch out for:

- unsolicited offers arriving by email, SMS (short message service) or MMS (multimedia message service)
- enticing subjects with promises of lottery wins, wealth or weight loss
- emails using lots of capital letters, bad spelling, different fonts, unusual subject headings or with text appearing in images
- incredible health claims for difficult-to-cure conditions and illnesses
- 'phishing' emails pretending to be from a bank or other legitimate company asking for your account details (usually by providing a link to a fake login page)
- lottery, sweepstakes, or other prize wins—asking you to send money or personal details to claim your winnings
- 'Nigerian scams' asking for money or assistance to release a small fortune from a distant country and promising a share of the fortune in return.

How to protect yourself

- If you are unsure about the sender, delete the message—don't reply or try to unsubscribe to the email or SMS as it will confirm your address and you may receive more spam.
- Never send your personal, credit card or online account details out in an email.
- Don't access banking and other online accounts from an email link—use a bookmarked link or type in the address.
- Always check the website address carefully, scammers often set up fake websites with very similar addresses.
- Always read the terms and conditions carefully, 'free offers' often have hidden costs. Check the business name at www.asic.gov.au (Australian businesses only). You can also search for the business name or scheme through a search engine.
- Install software that protects your computer from viruses and unwanted programs and keep it up-to-date.
