expect their lives to go on and on after the body has ceased to function [died]. And that's where all spiritually dead people should be heading, from death to life. That's what the majority of Australians should be hearing.

The epistle reading tells us that the mind of sinful men is death [Romans 8: 6], and that the sinful mind is hostile toward God [v7]. Yet verse 10 tells us that that 'if Christ is in us, our bodies are dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness'. So as Christians if we can get this message across to our fellow Australians a lot of people can live their lives to the fullest. They can know true freedom: they can ourselves; but that we pass it on to those who are unaware of this gift of life that has been given to the world from God.

Our Diet of Christ is the sacraments that we keep, namely our Baptism and partaking regularly of Holy Communion so that we remember and fill ourselves with what Christ has done for us.

May God bless us in our endeavors, whatever way we can, so that God's name is glorified in this world and that ultimately we make a dent in the statistics of people who will and are going to inherit eternal life. Amen.

We know what Jesus has done for us and we have put our faith and belief in him. But we don't keep God's love and promise of eternal life to
